APPEAL PROCEDURE

If all or part of a claim is denied, you may request a review in writing within 180 days after receiving notice of the benefit denial.

You may send us written comments or other items to support your claim. You may review and receive copies of any non-privileged information that is relevant to your appeal. There will be no charge for such copies. You may request the names of the experts we consulted who provided advice to us about your claim.

The appeal review will be conducted by someone other than the person who denied the initial claim and will not be subordinate to that person. The person conducting the review will not give deference to the initial denial decision. If the denial was based in whole or in part on a medical judgment, including determinations with regard to whether a service was considered experimental, investigational, and/or not medically necessary, the person conducting the review will consult with a qualified health care professional. This health care professional will be someone other than the person who made the original judgment and will not be subordinate to that person. Our review will include any written comments or other items you submit to support your claim.

We will review your claim promptly after we receive your request. If additional information is needed we will only request what is reasonably necessary to handle the claim. A written decision based on the facts as known by us will be provided within fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of your request.

If your appeal is about urgent care, you may call Toll Free at 877-897-4328, and an Expedited Review will be conducted. Verbal notification of our decision will be made within 72 hours, followed by written notice within 3 calendar days after that.

If we deny any part of your claim on review, you will receive a written notice of denial containing:

- a. The reasons for our decision.
- b. Reference to the parts of the Policy on which our decision is based.
- c. Reference to any internal rule or guideline relied upon in making our decision along with your right to receive a copy of these guidelines, free of charge, upon request.
- d. Information concerning your right to receive, free of charge, copies of non-privileged documents and records relevant to your claim.
- e. A statement that you may request an explanation of the scientific or clinical judgment we relied upon to exclude expenses that are experimental or investigational, or are not necessary or accepted according to generally accepted standards of dental practice.

If you are not satisfied . . .

Should you feel you are not being treated fairly, we want you to know you may contact the California Department of Insurance with your complaint and seek assistance from the governmental agency that regulates insurance.

CALIFORNIA
CONTINUATION BENEFITS REPLACEMENT ACT (Cal-COBRA)

NOTICE: These provisions are only applicable to certain plans as defined under the Act. Not all employers or groups are subject to this law. For further details to determine if this continuation coverage is available, please contact the person who handles the Policyholder's insurance matters.

The California Continuation Benefits Replacement Act (Cal-COBRA) signed into law effective January 1, 1998 requires that any employer meeting the definition under the Act allow a qualified beneficiary to continue group health coverage, including dental and vision care coverages after it would otherwise end, as a result of a qualifying event. Continuation coverage will be provided under the plan with the same terms and conditions that apply to similarly situated individuals.

A. DEFINITIONS

EMPLOYER means any employer that:

1. meets the definition of "small employer" as set forth in California;
2. employed 2-19 eligible employees on at least 50 percent of its working days during the preceding calendar year or, if the employer was not in business during any part of the preceding calendar year, employed 2 to 19 eligible employees on at least 50 percent of its working days during the preceding calendar quarter; and
3. is not subject to Section 4980B of the United States Internal Revenue Code (Federal COBRA) or Chapter 18 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act.

QUALIFIED BENEFICIARY means any individual who, on the day before the qualifying event, is an insured under a group benefit plan. An individual will not be considered to be a qualified beneficiary if:

1. The individual is entitled or becomes entitled to Medicare benefits. Entitlement to Medicare Part A only constitutes entitlement to benefits under Medicare.
2. The individual is covered or becomes covered under another group benefit plan which does not impose any exclusion or limitation with respect to any preexisting condition.
3. The individual is covered, becomes covered or is eligible to coverage under Federal COBRA, Chapter 18 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, or Chapter 6A of the Public Health Service Act.
4. The qualified beneficiary fails to meet the notification requirements as stated within the Enrollment provision below.
5. The qualified beneficiary fails to submit the correct premium amount for continuation of coverage, or fails to satisfy other terms and conditions of the plan contract.

QUALIFYING EVENT means any of the following events that, but for the election of continuation of coverage under this provision, would result in a loss of coverage for the qualified beneficiary under the group benefit plan:

1. The death of the covered employee.
2. The termination of employment or reduction of hours of the covered employee's employment, except that termination for gross misconduct does not constitute a qualifying event.

3. The divorce or legal separation of the covered employee from the covered employee's spouse.
4. The loss of dependent status by a dependent enrolled in the group benefit plan.
5. With respect to a covered dependent only, the covered employee's entitlement of benefits under Medicare (Title XVIII of the United States Social Security Act).

B. ENROLLMENT

NOTICE REQUIREMENTS. The qualified beneficiary must request the continuation of coverage in writing and deliver such notice, by first-class mail, or other reliable means of delivery, to the health services plan (or to the employer if the employer has contracted with the insurer to perform the administrative services under Cal-COBRA) within the 60-day period following the later of:

1. the date that the enrollee's coverage under the group benefit plan terminated or will terminate by reason of a qualifying event;
2. the date the enrollee was sent notice of the ability to continue coverage.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS. The first premium payment must be delivered by first class mail, certified mail or other reliable means of delivery, including personal delivery, express mail, or private courier company to the health services plan (or the employer if the employer has contracted with the plan to perform the administrative services under Cal-COBRA) in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

1. the first premium must be delivered within 45 days of the date of the qualified beneficiary provided written notice to the health services plan; and
2. the first premium payment must equal an amount sufficient to pay any required premiums and all premiums due.

Failure to submit the correct premium amount within the 45-day period will disqualify the qualified beneficiary from receiving continuation coverage.

MONTHLY COST. The premium will be due monthly and will not be more than 110% of the applicable rate charged for a similarly situated individual under the group benefit plan.

C. CONTINUATION PERIOD

Continuation coverage shall terminate for those qualified beneficiaries at the first to occur of the following:

1. For those who are eligible for continuation coverage as a result of a termination of employment or reduction in work hours, the date 36 months following the date the qualified beneficiary's benefits under the contract would otherwise have terminated by reason of a qualifying event.
2. For those who are eligible for continuation coverage as a result of: (a) the death of an employee, (b) a loss of dependent status, (c) divorce or legal separation, or (d) the employee's eligibility for Medicare (for dependent coverage), the date 36 months following the date the qualified beneficiary's benefits under the contract would otherwise have terminated by reason of a qualifying event.

3. For those qualified beneficiaries who are eligible for continuation coverage and are determined to be disabled by the Social Security Administration at any time during the first 60 days of continuation coverage, and the spouse or dependent who has elected coverage, the date 36 months following the date the qualified beneficiary's benefits under the contract would otherwise have terminated by reason of a qualifying event. The qualified beneficiary must notify the insurer, or the employer or administrator that contracts to perform administrative services, of the social security determination within 60 days of the date of the determination letter and prior to the end of the original 36-month continuation coverage period in order to be eligible for coverage based on this criteria.
4. For those who fail to make premium payments, at the end of the period for which premium payments were made.
5. In the case of a qualified beneficiary who is initially eligible for and elects continuation coverage as a result of termination of employment or reduction of hours, as defined within paragraph (2) of "Qualifying Event", but who has another qualifying event as described in paragraphs (1), (3), (4) or (5) of "Qualifying Event", within 36 months of the date of the first qualifying event, and the qualified beneficiary has notified the plan, or the employer or administrator under contract to provide the administrative services, of the second qualifying event within 60 days of the date of the second qualifying event, the date 36 months after the date of the first qualifying event.
6. The employer, or any successor employer ceases to provide any group benefit plan to his or her employees. See Additional Provisions below.
7. The qualified beneficiary moves out of the insurer's service area or the qualified beneficiary commits fraud or deception in the use of the insurer's services.

An individual who becomes a qualified beneficiary shall continue to receive coverage until continuation coverage is terminated at the qualified beneficiary's election or the period of time provided for continuation coverage as defined in Section C. Continuation Period, whichever comes first, even if the employer that sponsored the group benefit plan subsequently becomes subject to Section 4980B of the United States Internal Revenue Code or Chapter 18 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, 29 U.S.C. Section 1161 et seq.

D. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

CHANGE IN GROUP BENEFIT PLANS. If the continuation coverage would terminate prior to the end of the period the qualified beneficiary would have remained covered as a result of a termination of an agreement between the group benefit plan and the employer, and a new group benefit plan is available for active employees, then the qualified beneficiary may continue coverage based on the following terms and conditions:

1. the coverage will continue for the balance of the period that the qualified beneficiary would have remained covered under the prior plan;
2. notice must be provided to the new group benefit plan within 30 days after receiving notice of the termination of the prior plan;
3. any requirements for enrollment in, and payment to, the new group benefit plan must be met.

Coverage will terminate if the qualified beneficiary fails to comply with paragraphs (2) or (3) above.

NEWBORN OR ADOPTED CHILDREN. Any child who is born to or is placed for adoption with a former employee who is a qualified beneficiary during the period of continuation coverage, shall be considered a qualified beneficiary and entitled to receive coverage benefits as well for the remainder of the period that the former employee is covered under the plan. Notice must be provided within 30 days of the child's birth or placement of adoption.

For purposes of this section:

Pursuant to Sections 381.5 and 10121.7 of the California Insurance Code, coverage shall be provided to Registered Domestic Partners that is equal to, and subject to the same terms and conditions as, the coverage provided to a spouse.

CHILD. Child refers to the child of the Insured, a child of the Insured's spouse, or a child of the Insured's Registered Domestic Partner, if they otherwise meet the definition of Dependent.

DEPENDENT refers to:

- a. an Insured's spouse or an Insured's Registered Domestic Partner.
- b. each unmarried and married child less than 26 years of age, for whom the Insured, the Insured's spouse or the Insured's Registered Domestic Partner, is legally responsible, including natural born children, adopted children from the date of placement for adoption, and children covered under a Qualified Medical Child Support Order as defined by applicable Federal and State laws. Grandchildren, spouses of Dependents and other Dependent family members under the age of 26 are not eligible for coverage under this plan.
- c. each unmarried child age 26 or older who is Totally Disabled and becomes Totally Disabled as defined below while insured as a dependent under b. above. Coverage of such child will not cease if proof of dependency and disability is given within 31 days of attaining the limiting age and subsequently as may be required by us but not more frequently than annually after the initial two-year period following the child's attaining the limiting age. Any costs for providing continuing proof will be at our expense.

Injury or Sickness for Certain Dependents

Coverage will continue for a covered Dependent student if the student is unable to remain enrolled in school and must take a medically necessary leave of absence. Coverage will continue for a period not to exceed 24 months or the date on which coverage would otherwise terminate in accordance with the terms and provisions of the group policy, whichever comes first. We may require documentation and certification by the student's treating physician of the medical necessity of a leave of absence.

Members are required to pay the difference between the plan payment and the Participating Provider's contracted fees for covered services. A Non-Participating Provider is any other provider and may also be referred to as an "Out-of-Network Provider." Members are required to pay the difference between the plan payment and the provider's actual fee for covered services, and may also be subject to higher deductibles and out-of-pocket maximums. Therefore, the out-of-pocket expenses may be lower if services are provided by a Participating Provider.

CONDITIONS FOR INSURANCE COVERAGE

ELIGIBLE CLASS FOR MEMBERS. The members of the eligible class(es) are shown on the Schedule of Benefits. Each member of the eligible class (referred to as "Member") will qualify for such insurance on the day he or she completes the required eligibility period, if any. Members choosing to elect coverage will hereinafter be referred to as "Insured."

If employment is the basis for membership, a member of the Eligible Class for Insurance is any all eligible orange county managers associates with an Employer Unit working at least 32 hours per week.

If both spouses are Members, and if either of them insures their dependent children, then the spouse, whoever elects, will be considered the dependent of the other. As a dependent, the person will not be considered a Member of the Eligible Class, but will be eligible for insurance as a dependent.

ELIGIBLE CLASS FOR DEPENDENT INSURANCE. Each Member of the eligible class(es) for dependent coverage is eligible for the Dependent Insurance under the policy and will qualify for this Dependent Insurance on the latest of:

1. the day he or she qualifies for coverage as a Member;
2. the day he or she first becomes a Member; or
3. the day he or she first has a dependent. For dependent children, a newborn child will be considered an eligible dependent upon reaching their 2nd birthday. The child may be added at birth or within 31 days of the 2nd birthday.

A Member must be an Insured to also insure his or her dependents.

If employment is the basis for membership, a member of the Eligible Class for Dependent Insurance is any all eligible orange county managers associates with an Employer Unit working at least 32 hours per week and has eligible dependents.

Any spouse who elects to be a dependent rather than a member of the Eligible Class for Personal Insurance, as explained above, is not a member of the Eligible Class for Dependent Insurance.

When a member of the Eligible Class for Dependent Insurance dies and, if at the date of death, has dependents insured, the Employer Unit has the option of offering the dependents of the deceased employee continued coverage. If elected by the Employer Unit and the affected dependents, the name of such deceased member will continue to be listed as a member of the Eligible Class for Dependent Insurance.

PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS. The following requirement(s) must be met in order for coverage to be placed in force, and to remain in force for each Employer Unit:

Percentage of Members in an Employer Unit 100%

If the Employer Unit has 5 or more employees enrolled in the plan on the original plan effective date, those employees that are covered for group dental coverage elsewhere may be counted toward satisfying the participation requirement.

Minimum Number of insured employees required of each Employer Unit for the insurance to remain in force for that Employer Unit 3

Dependent Insurance

Percentage of Members in an Employer Unit which, upon entry into the Trust, insured nine or less eligible employees 100%

Percentage of Members in an Employer Unit which, upon entry into the Trust, insured ten or more eligible employees:

When contributions are not required	100%
When contributions are required	80%

Those dependents that are covered for group dental coverage elsewhere may be counted toward satisfying the participation requirement.

CONTRIBUTION REQUIREMENTS. Dependent on the Employer Unit's choice, an Insured may, or may not, be required to contribute to the payment of his or her premium.

Dependent Insurance: An Insured is required to contribute to the payment of insurance premiums for his or her dependents.

ELIGIBILITY PERIOD. For Members eligible on the date the Employer Unit was accepted into the Trust, coverage is effective immediately.

For persons who become Members after the date the Employer Unit was accepted into the Trust, the Eligibility Period will be one, two, or three months of continuous active employment. The Eligibility Period is selected by the Employer Unit, subject to the condition that the same Eligibility Period be applied to all Members within the same Employer Unit. New Members should check with their Employer Unit to determine which Eligibility Period was selected.

EFFECTIVE DATE. Each Member has the option of being insured and insuring his or her Dependents. To elect coverage, he or she must agree in writing to contribute to the payment of the insurance premiums. The Effective Date for each Member and his or her Dependents, will be:

1. the date on which the Member qualifies for insurance, if the Member agrees to contribute on or before that date.
2. the date on which the Member agrees to contribute, if that date is within 31 days after the date he or she qualifies for insurance.

EXCEPTIONS. If employment is the basis for membership, a Member must be in active service on the date the insurance, or any increase in insurance, is to take effect. If not, the insurance will not take effect until the day he or she returns to active service. Active service refers to the performance in the customary manner by an employee of all the regular duties of his or her employment with his or her Employer Unit on a full time basis at one of the Employer Unit's business establishments or at some location to which the Employer Unit's business requires the employee to travel.

A Member will be in active service on any regular non-working day if he or she is not totally disabled on that day and if he or she was in active service on the regular working day before that day.

But any person who is not in active service or is totally disabled will be insured on the Effective Date if:

- a. the person was insured under a policy of group insurance providing like benefits which ended on the day immediately before the Effective Date of the policy providing this coverage; and

- b. the person is considered a Member or an eligible Dependent under the policy providing this coverage, and had the prior policy contained the same definition of eligibility, would have been a Member or Dependent under the prior policy.

TERMINATION DATES

INSUREDS. The insurance for any Insured, will automatically terminate on the end of the month falling on or next following the earliest of:

1. the date the Insured ceases to be a Member;
2. the last day of the period for which the Insured has contributed, if required, to the payment of insurance premiums; or
3. the date coverage for the Insured's Employer Unit is terminated.
4. the date the policy is terminated; or
5. the date the number of Insureds falls below any participation requirements shown above.

Labor Dispute For Employees Only

If membership is because of employment and the Insured's active service stops because of a labor dispute, the insurance may be continued subject to the following rules:

1. This provision only applies when the Policyholder is required by a collective bargaining agreement to pay all or part of the Insured's premiums.
2. The premium due for each Insured subject to this provision and the Insured's dependents, if applicable, will be that shown in the policy.
3. Payment of the premium by the Insured must be to the Policyholder, union, or other collection entity and forwarded to us on a monthly basis.

The insurance continued during such labor dispute will stop on the earliest of the following dates:

1. the date six months from the date cessation of work due to the labor dispute started.

PROOF OF LOSS. Written proof of loss must be given to us within 90 days after the incurred date of the services provided for which benefits are payable. If it is impossible to give written proof within the 90 day period, we will not reduce or deny a claim for this reason if the proof is filed as soon as is reasonably possible. INCONTESTABILITY. We cannot contest the validity of the policy after one year from the date of issue except for non-payment of premiums. We cannot contest an Insured's insurability after his or her insurance has been in force for one year while the Insured is alive. Any of the Insured's statements that we contest must be in a written application signed by the Insured.

- a. failure to make required premium payments;

We will not refuse to insure a person who is eligible to be insured just because the Policyholder or the Employer Unit fails or errs in giving us the date necessary to include that person for coverage. An Insured's insurance will not stay in force nor an amount of insurance be continued after the termination date, according to the Conditions for Insurance, because the Policyholder and/or Employer Unit fails or errs in giving us the necessary data concerning an Insured's termination.

E. Continuation of Coverage Provisions (COBRA)

COBRA (Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985) gives Qualified Beneficiaries the right to elect COBRA continuation after insurance ends because of a Qualifying Event. The law generally covers group health plans maintained by employers with 20 or more employees in the prior year. The law does not, however, apply to plans sponsored by the Federal government and certain church-related organizations.

i. Definitions For This Section

Qualified Beneficiary means an Insured Person who is covered by the plan on the day before a qualifying event. Any child born to or placed for adoption with a covered employee during the period of COBRA coverage is considered a qualified beneficiary.

A Qualifying Event occurs when:

1. The Member dies (hereinafter referred to as Qualifying Event 1);
2. The Member's employment terminates for reasons other than gross misconduct as determined by the Employer (hereinafter referred to as Qualifying Event 2);
3. The Member's work hours fall below the minimum number required to be a Member (hereinafter referred to as Qualifying Event 3);
4. The Member becomes divorced or legally separated from a Spouse (hereinafter referred to as Qualifying Event 4);

5. The Member becomes entitled to receive Medicare benefits under Title XVII of the Social Security Act (hereinafter referred to as Qualifying Event 5);
6. The Child of a Member ceases to be a Dependent (hereinafter referred to as Qualifying Event 6);
7. The Employer files a petition for reorganization under Title 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, provided the Member is retired from the Employer and is insured on the date the petition is filed (hereinafter referred to as Qualifying Event 7).

ii. Electing COBRA Continuation

- A. Each Qualified Beneficiary has the right to elect to continue coverage that was in effect on the day before the Qualifying Event. The Qualified Beneficiary must apply in writing within 60 days of the later of:
 1. The date on which Insurance would otherwise end; and
 2. The date on which the Employer or Plan Administrator gave the Qualified Beneficiary notice of the right to COBRA continuation.
- B. A Qualified Beneficiary who does not elect COBRA Continuation coverage during their original election period may be entitled to a second election period if the following requirements are satisfied:
 1. The Member's Insurance ended because of a trade related termination of their employment, which resulted in being certified eligible for trade adjustment assistance;
 2. The Member is certified eligible for trade adjustment assistance (as determined by the appropriate governmental agency) within 6 months of the date Insurance ended due to the trade related termination of their employment; and
 3. The Qualified Beneficiary must apply in writing within 60 days after the first day of the month in which they are certified eligible for trade adjustment assistance.

iii. Notice Requirements

1. When the Member becomes insured, the Plan Administrator must inform the Member and Spouse in writing of the right to COBRA continuation.
2. The Qualified Beneficiary must notify the Plan Administrator in writing of Qualifying Event 4 or 6 above within 60 days of the later of:
 - a. The date of the Qualifying Event; or
 - b. The date the Qualified Beneficiary loses coverage due to the Qualifying Event.

3. A Qualified Beneficiary, who is entitled to COBRA continuation due to the occurrence of Qualifying Event 2 or 3 and who is disabled at any time during the first 60 days of continuation coverage as determined by the Social Security Administration pursuant to Title II or XVI of the Social Security Act, must notify the Plan Administrator of the disability in writing within 60 days of the later of:
 - a. The date of the disability determination;
 - b. The date of the Qualifying Event; or
 - c. The date on which the Qualified Beneficiary loses coverage due to the Qualifying Event.
4. Each Qualified Beneficiary who has become entitled to COBRA continuation with a maximum duration of 18 or 29 months must notify the Plan Administrator of the occurrence of a second Qualifying Event within 60 days of the later of:
 - a. The date of the Qualifying Event; or
 - b. The date the Qualified Beneficiary loses coverage due to the Qualifying Event.
5. The Employer must give the Plan Administrator written notice within 30 days of the occurrence of Qualifying Event 1, 2, 3, 5, or 7.
6. Within 14 days of receipt of the Employer's notice, the Plan Administrator must notify each Qualified Beneficiary in writing of the right to elect COBRA continuation.

In order to protect your rights, Members and Qualified Beneficiaries should inform the Plan Administrator in writing of any change of address.

iv. COBRA Continuation Period

1. 18-month COBRA Continuation

Each Qualified Beneficiary may continue Insurance for up to 18 months after the date of Qualifying Event 2 or 3.

2. 29-month COBRA Continuation

Each Qualified Beneficiary, who is entitled to COBRA continuation due to the occurrence of Qualifying Event 2 or 3 and who is disabled at any time during the first 60 days of continuation coverage as determined by the Social Security Administration pursuant to Title II or XVI of the Social Security Act, may continue coverage for up to 29 months after the date of the Qualifying Event. All Insured Persons in the Qualified Beneficiary's family may also continue coverage for up to 29 months.

3. 36-Month COBRA Continuation

If you are a Dependent, you may continue Coverage for up to 36 months after the date of Qualifying Event 1, 4, 5, or 6. Each Qualified Beneficiary who is entitled to continue Insurance for 18 or 29 months may be eligible to continue coverage for up to 36 months after the date of their original Qualifying Event if a second Qualifying Event occurs while they are on continuation coverage.

Note: The total period of COBRA continuation available in 1 through 3 will not exceed 36 months.

4. COBRA Continuation For Certain Bankruptcy Proceedings

If the Qualifying Event is 7, the COBRA continuation period for a retiree or retiree's Spouse is the lifetime of the retiree. Upon the retiree's death, the COBRA continuation period for the surviving Dependents is 36 months from the date of the retiree's death.

v. Premium Requirements

Insurance continued under this provision will be retroactive to the date insurance would have ended because of a Qualifying Event. The Qualified Beneficiary must pay the initial required premium not later than 45 days after electing COBRA continuation, and monthly premium on or before the Premium Due Date thereafter. The monthly premium is a percentage of the total premium (both the portion paid by the employee and any portion paid by the employer) currently in effect on each Premium Due Date. The premium rate may change after you cease to be Actively at Work. The percentage is as follows:

18 month continuation - 102%

29 month continuation - 102% during the first 18 months, 150% during the next 11 months

36 month continuation - 102%

vi. When COBRA Continuation Ends

COBRA continuation ends on the earliest of:

1. The date the Group Policy terminates;
2. 31 days after the date the last period ends for which a required premium payment was made;
3. The last day of the COBRA continuation period.
4. The date the Qualified Beneficiary first becomes entitled to Medicare coverage under Title XVII of the Social Security Act;
5. The first date on which the Qualified Beneficiary is: (a) covered under another group Eye Care policy and (b) not subject to any preexisting condition limitation in that policy.

F. Your Rights under ERISA

As a participant in this Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all plan participants shall be entitled to:

Receive Information About Your Plan and Benefits

Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office and at other specified locations, such as work-sites and union halls, all documents governing the plan, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements, and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the plan, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements, and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan description. The administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

Receive a summary of the plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Continue Group Health Plan Coverage

Continue health care coverage for yourself, spouse or dependents if there is a loss of coverage under the plan as a result of a qualifying event. You or your dependents may have to pay for such coverage. Review this summary plan description and the documents governing the plan on the rules governing your COBRA continuation coverage rights.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for plan participants ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit plan. The people who operate your plan, called "fiduciaries" of the plan, have a duty to operate and administer this plan prudently and in the interest of you and other plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, your union, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of plan documents or the latest annual report from the plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a Federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the administrator. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or Federal court. If it should happen that plan fiduciaries misuse the plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance with Your Rights

If you have any questions about your plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan Administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling those publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration
